

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA BALLROOM DANCERS ASSOCIATION

MONTHLY DANCE EVENTS

All dances are held on Sunday evenings at the State College Elks Club, Route 45, Boalsburg, PA. The nine regular dances are free to CPBDA members. The dance fee for non-members is $15 per person per dance. Three special Dinner Dances are held annually and are priced individually. All dances feature live music and many rhythms of dancing (foxtrot, waltz, swing, rumba, cha cha, tango, etc.) Dance attendees are encouraged to participate in the buffet and order drinks from the Elks Club during our nine regular dances. Dress for the nine regular dances is neat but casual. Dress for the three special dinner dances is more formal: men wear jackets and ties and women wear dresses or pant suits.

DANCE INSTRUCTION

An instructional lesson is taught from 4:30-6:00 PM by ballroom professional Greg Sipe and precedes each of the nine regular dances. It is free to all members and $10 for non-members. Dance lesson rhythms vary from month to month. Check our website www.cpbda.com for more information.

DIRECTIONS TO THE ELKS CLUB

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA BALLROOM DANCERS ASSOCIATION

Newsletter – April 2010

Dear Members,

Let me begin with a very big sigh of relief. Don Fahnlne has stepped forward to serve as our President beginning June 1. Whew! And it has only been a few years since he had served in that same post. His gracious willingness to repeat solves a major problem, and leaves us with one slightly smaller. We still need someone to support him this coming year as President-elect, then assume the Presidency in June of 2011. Don deserves our warmest thanks, and he also deserves to have that backup assistance. We hope it is forthcoming, soon.

As you know, Peggy Campbell, Carolyn Jensen, and Treasurer Ted Wrigglesworth had already agreed to continue in their leadership roles. (Bless them!)

And there's more good news. We have managed to hold the line on expenses, so our dues will not increase next year. One major contributor to that welcome surprise is that more of you have been supporting our Buffets. Each person through the line directly reduces our ballroom rental fee that evening, and, if enough participate, it can even eliminate that fee.

Included in this newsletter is the Application to renew your membership, and the tempting menu and Reservation Form for the last dance of this year.

That leaves you with just a few assignments: By all means re-enlist for another year, continue to support the Buffets, join us for dinner and the dance a week from Sunday, and each of you wear a hat to the dance so you can tip it when you see Don.

It's been fun!

Jay
